CANADIAN SHIP BACK FROM DRAMATIC TRIP—Smiling sailors of H.M.C.S. Crescent line up as the Canadian destroyer slides into her berth at Tsingtau, C.C., after dramatic trip to protect Canadian nationals living in China. Ship was on her way to rescue Canadian sailors who were out of Canadian waters in February. She arrived at Shanghai, Feb. 25, and sailed up and down the Yangtze river for several months prepared for battle.—S.N.S. photo.

CORNISH BIRDS—These muscular looking Cornish birds belong to Mrs. Hazel Mack of Rockwood, Ont. One bird is now raising some goslings and appears to be a good mother. They are poor egg producers and are quite quarrelsome after a year old. The large bird in the picture has purple greenish feathers, and their ungainliness is amusing. They look like prize fighters of the poultry world.

BOARD STANDS PAT ON DISMISSAL OF PRINCIPAL—The three members of the high school board in the village of Flinton, 40 miles north of London, Ont., are standing pat in the threatened dismissal of the school principal, Keith MacEwan, 40. Their action has resulted in a stormy protest from some 40 pupils and their parents. Chairman of the high school board, Stafford Yanch, Flinton hotelman, states the board was justified in asking for the principal's resignation. But further than that he did not go. He would give no reason for the dismissal. "If the school board is not permitted to make its own decision in a matter of this kind, then there is no use having a school board," he says.—B.N.S. photo.

LEADING AGRICULTURISTS—Pictured above, just before disembarking at Quebec City from the Empress of Canada, is a group of leading agriculturists en route to the International Federation of Agricultural Producers Conference. They are making a tour of Canadian agricultural centres. Left to right: W. A. Hill, public relations man for the National Farmers Union of the U.K.; J. K. Knowles, leader of the U.K. delegation; W. Graham, N.F.U. delegate; Mrs. Knowles; G. R. H. Nugent, N.F.U. delegate; Mrs. Nugent; Anthony Hurd, M.P., agricultural correspondent for the London Times; Mrs. A. H. BRINGS SECOND HIGHEST PRICE—Abegweit Milady Corrine, although but 16 months old brought $1,550 second highest price for a female at the National Holstein Sale held at Oakville, Ont. She is a daughter of "Milady" World Champion 305-day producer over all classes. At the right is the seller Premier J. Walter Jones, of P.E.I., with the buyer H. L. Goubert, Vercheres, Que. In the centre and J. Lincoln Dewar, New Perth, Ont.

NOW IT'S PRINCESS RITA—Smiling prettily, Rita Hayworth, daughter of a dancing teacher, who climbed to the top of the movie ladder, is shown a few minutes after she became a princess. She is with her husband, Prince Aly Khan, as they rode from the town hall of Vallauris, Alpes-Maritimes, France, to the prince's Chateau de L'Horizon after their civil wedding. The marriage, which was a title-spandied affair, was performed by the Communist mayor of Vallauris.—B.N.S. photo.

GERMAN CONGRESS THAT ELECTED EISLER.—The Red-controlled "People's Congress", which recently elected bond-jumping Gerhart Eisler as one of its members, is shown above in session in the Soviet section of Berlin. The congress, scheduled to form an East German government, named a delegation to represent it in Paris. Above, Gen. George Tulpanov, (shown centre in box in uniform), chief of the Soviet Information division in Berlin, is seen with other members of the delegation.

GIGANTIC WAR MANOEUVRES IN GERMANY—U.S. fighter planes roared over a column of tanks of the 2nd Armored Cavalry to attack "aggressor" forces holding up an advance during the second phase of "operation showers", recent training exercises for army and air force units in Germany. This largest training manoeuvre ever to be held in Europe by the U.S. took place recently in northern Bavaria, with over 70,000 personnel of army, navy and air force participating.—S.N.

STILL SEPARATED AFTER LONG TRIP—from the South Pacific because his wife is crippled with polio, William J. Kropytko, of the U.S. Navy, has his children in Long Beach, Calif. Although separated from them by a windowpane in his quarters, Kropytko couldn't resist this opportunity to see his son, Rickie, nine months old, (left), and his three.—S.N.S. photo.

EX-G.I. RENOUNCES U.S. FOR GERMANY—Daniel F. McCarthy, Jr., 28, Brooklyn-born former soldier has announced that "he has fallen in love with Germany," and intends to renounce his American citizenship and become a German. Looking at a picture of the youth in their New York home are Mrs. Catherine McCarthy, mother, and Joan McCarthy, sister. The ex-G.I. said he became interested in Germany when he was there in 1945 as a soldier. He is being held in a Frankfurt army stockade on a charge of illegal entry.—S.N.S. photo.

"NEVER GIVEN UP HOPE" — "I don't think I'll Richard, but you can't tell," said Mrs. John Marlowe, mother of missing son Roy-Marlowe, when she was shown a clipping of a 15-year-old boy who has been missing since 1935.

New York. Richard Marlowe disappeared from his Erie, Pa., home five years ago, July 18. He was then nine. No trace of him has since been found. Recently a woman from Bartonville, Ont., sent in a New York newspaper clipping with a picture of a boy who resembled Richard. The caption said the boy was about 15 and had been wandering through the midwest for the last five years in a state of amnesia. After she saw the picture, Mrs. Marlowe said she had never given up hope "One minute I think he is alive and the next minute
